

MEDICARE ADVANTAGE MEASURES UP

DELIVERING for Seniors

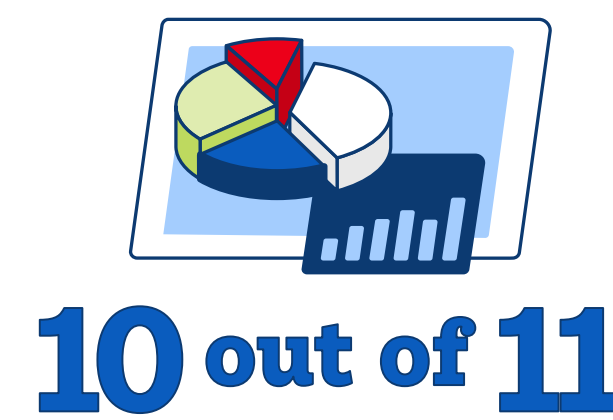

More than 33 million Americans and people with disabilities choose Medicare Advantage because it delivers better services, better access to care, and better value. Medicare Advantage has strong bipartisan support because it provides more choices and delivers better outcomes for the American people.

33 million+ Americans choose Medicare Advantage for their coverage and care.

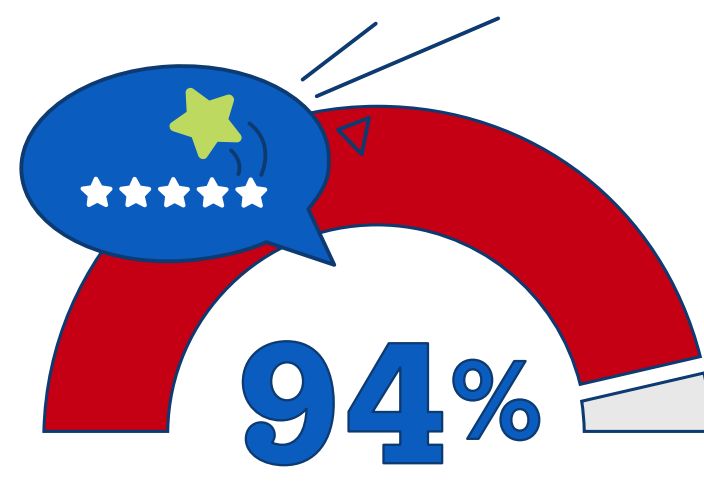

9-in-10 senior voters with Medicare Advantage are satisfied with their coverage, including almost 7-in-10 who are very satisfied.

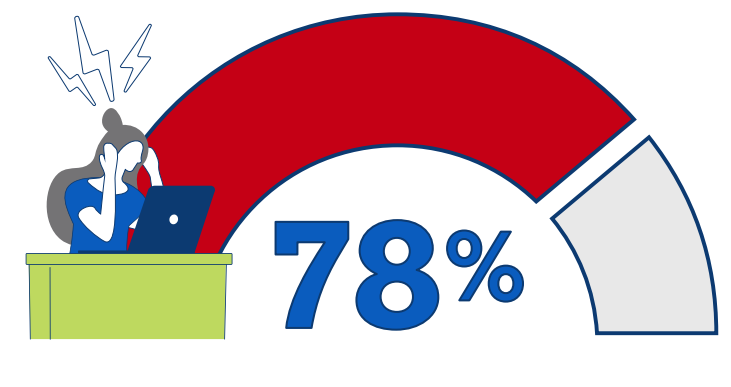

Medicare Advantage outperformed fee-for-service Medicare (FFS) in 10 out of 11 preventive and other quality measures.

9-in-10 senior voters with Medicare Advantage are satisfied with preventive services like vaccines and screenings and their prescription drug coverage.

94% of senior voters on Medicare Advantage would recommend their coverage to their families or friends based on their personal experience.

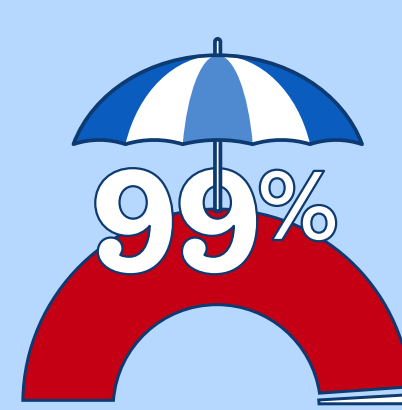

78% of senior voters with Medicare Advantage are concerned about cuts to their benefits due to rising inflation rates.

SAVING Money for Americans

In 2024, the average monthly Medicare Advantage premium is expected to be $18.50.

Medicare Advantage delivers affordable coverage by reducing Medicare's cost-sharing and offering additional benefits that FFS Medicare doesn't cover, including a cap on out-of-pocket costs. And most plans offer additional benefits such as prescription drug coverage, comprehensive dental, vision, and hearing coverage, wellness programs, caregiver support, and innovative telehealth options.

99% of Medicare Advantage eligible Americans have access to Medicare Advantage plans that include comprehensive prescription drug coverage with zero premium (beyond the Part B premium).

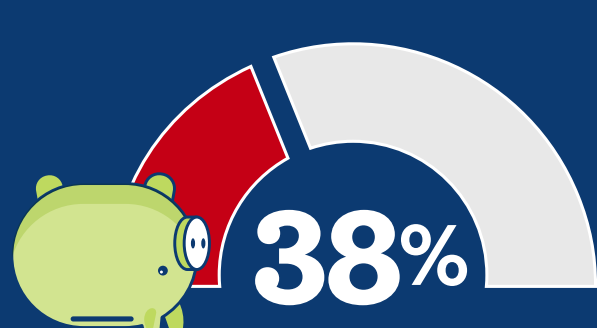

The Medicare Advantage model can also help sustain FFS Medicare.

The Medicare Part A Trust Fund could be extended by as much as 17 years if Part A services in the FFS Medicare program were used at the same level as Medicare Advantage.

SERVING

Diverse American Communities

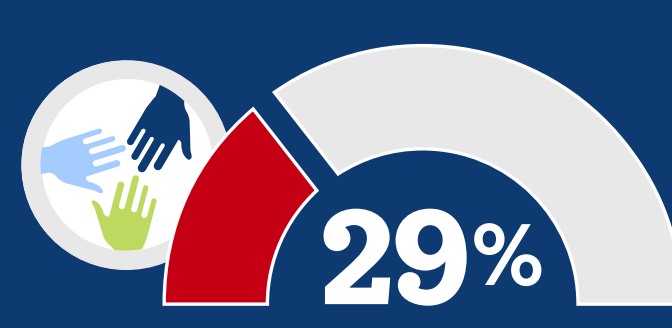

Policymakers and health care leaders alike are focused on ensuring that all Americans can access high-quality care and health coverage—regardless of the individual qualities that make us who we are, like our race, color, gender, disability, or health status. And Medicare Advantage delivers.

About 38% of Medicare Advantage members have annual incomes of less than $25,000.

4 million rural Americans are served by Medicare Advantage. That's up from 3.2 million in 2020.

A larger share (29%) of Medicare Advantage enrollees come from diverse populations than FFS Medicare (19%).

60% of all people in Medicare who are dually eligible for Medicaid benefits are enrolled in Medicare Advantage.

Medicare Advantage has strong bipartisan support because it is a prime example of a public-private partnership that lowers costs, provides more choices, and delivers better outcomes for the American people.

America's seniors and people with disabilities agree, Medicare Advantage provides better services, better access to care, and better value. By reducing Medicare's out-of-pocket costs, Medicare Advantage delivers affordable coverage and offers supplemental benefits beyond FFS Medicare that help to address social drivers of health, including home-delivered meals and transportation to and from doctors' appointments.
